Increase In Rate By TVA Planned To Offset Costs

Higher interest, fuel, and labor costs necessitate an increase in TVA electric rates, the Tennessee Valley Authority announced today. An additional $25 to $30 million a year in net power revenue is needed by TVA to offset increases in power system costs which have taken place in recent years.

This will require changes in retail rates charged by systems distributing TVA power to ultimate consumers.

Seminar Is Success Here Wednesday

A talk by William Dixon Boggs was the highlight of the seminar held on Wednesday at Murray State University, and sponsored by the First District of KFWO. Mr. Boggs, a native of Wheeling, West Virginia, spent two years in the U.S. Army in Japan, after which he attended John Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies in Washington in 1967-68. Here he was awarded the Italian Foreign Office Fellowship for a year's study in Bologna, Italy. He entered foreign service in 1960 and served in Vietnam in 1961-63 as an assistant to U.S. Ambassador.

Members of the Murray Woman's Club served as hosts for this event. Dr. Ralph Woods, president of MSU, welcomed the more than 100 ladies from First District. The Music Department choroplex presented two very appropriate numbers.

The first part of the program was a Symposium on "Today's Youth Face Mental Health and Religion," presented by Dr. Frank Kodman and Charles Horne, both of the MSU faculty, and Rev. Henry McKenna.

The second portion of the program was a discussion on community improvement, in which all the ladies present took part. Mr. Max Hurd was the discussion leader.

Mr. Hurd was served at noon, after which Mr. Dixon's challenging talk was heard.

Mrs. Malcolm Cross, First District Governor, presided at the meeting.

Other officers include: Vicki Zelich, Louisville, president; Danna Hibbs, Providence, secretary; Nedda Huff, Owensboro, treasurer; Linda Probus, Louisville, corresponding secretary; Trivian Walton, Cape Girardeau, Mo., and Sandy Wall, Paducah, hostesses.

Gail Threlkeld, Owensboro, Jr., parish nurse representative; Suzi Schneider, St. Louis, Mo., social chairman; Judy Dawson, Philpot, Philanthropic chairman; and Linda Snyder, Mayfield, sergeant-at-arms; Letha Egan, Fulton, and Judy Baker, Cadiz, chaplains.

Future Bright Says Johnson To Lions Club

Speaking to the Murray Lions Club Tuesday night, James L. Johnson, Executive Secretary of the Murray Chamber of Commerce, said that the future of Murray and Calloway County had never looked brighter than at the present time.

Johnson divided the community into five segments that he considered as the vital elements of progress. They were the Tourist and Travel Industry, Agriculture, Commerce, Industry and Education.

Speaking first on the travel picture Johnson said, "Whether we know it or not... Murray is destined to become the hub of the largest and best vacation center in the world. We can take advantage of this factor, or we can become engulfed in it."

He said that agriculture could be the weakest link in our resource chain, with diminishing demands for our principal crop — dark tobacco. He issued a challenge to the club.

Pilot Project At Local Library To End Here Soon

Mrs. Lottie Hart, Chairman of the Murray-Calloway County Library Board has received a letter from Miss Margaret Willis, State Librarian, which indicates that the "pilot project" for the local library will soon come to a conclusion.

The project, which was sponsored and paid for by the state, was for a period of 21 months which will end about June. A meeting has been called for Monday, March 20 here to discuss what will be done with the library.

The letter from Miss Willis is as follows:

Mrs. Lottie Hart, Chairman
Murray-Calloway County Library Board
c/o The County Library
606 West Main Street
Murray, Kentucky

Dear Mrs. Hart:

The pilot Library and Bookmobile Project or "Demonstration" for Calloway County, which your Library Board requested after consultation with local leaders and governmental officials, will soon have to be terminated, since the agreed upon 21 months for the project will soon have been completed.

If more funds had been available, the project could have been better, but we believe that service has been greatly improved, particularly because of the convenient location of the Library, the full time Bookmobile service, the hard work of Library personnel, the addition of more Library and Bookmobile materials, and the longer hours of service to everyone. We are now cataloging many more books, which may be available to you in the next 60 days, if the project is not withdrawn.

Because our funds are limited, and your project has been described and filed as a part of our approved State Plan with the federal government, we shall be forced to follow our original agreement. This agreement noted the length of time of the project and required the provision of permanent local support at the end of the project in order for your Board to keep the Bookmobile and all materials provided so far, as well as to receive regular, additional shipments of books and materials, technical help from a regional staff and additional improvements thereafter.

We have no choice but to withdraw from Calloway County if local support is not provided. We may add to local support thereafter, but we cannot take the place of your local program.

This Demonstration was approved for Calloway County because we have had great faith in your county. We have believed that if your county should see even in part what improved Library services may mean to them, that the county would not turn its back on future development of a much better program which can mean so much to so many.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — President Johnson announcing he is sending military personnel to Vietnam to aid in the defense of the South.

"... in the months ahead we shall have at work in Saigon the ablest, the wisest, the most tenacious and the most experienced team that the United States can mount."

CORNING, Iowa — President Lee Staley of the Farmers Organization which is urging dairy farmers to dry up the milk supply in 25 states to force up milk prices.

"If this holding action is totally successful and farmers get their price increase, then we feel the mood of the farmers would be such that they would want to take steps to raise prices on all farm produce."

NEW ORLEANS — Perry Raymond Russo, when asked at a court hearing why he did not inform the Warren Commission what he allegedly knew of a plot by Lee Harvey Oswald and two other men to kill President Kennedy:

"I did not want to push myself on anybody. I did not think my information was important to the Warren Commission."

WEATHERFIELD, Conn. — Norman S. Chapin, citizen, refusing to supply his new address for registration purposes with the state Motor Vehicles Department because the department sells the registration list to "junk mail" advertisers.

"It's an invasion of my privacy, and my privacy is something worth fighting for."

A Bible Thought For Today

Woe to the idle shepherd that leaveth the flock!
—Zechariah 11:17.
We are given time to live and to serve the Lord. How we use our time indicates what we think of ourselves and of the Creator of time.

Today is Thursday, March 16, the 155th day of 1967 with 280 to follow.

The moon is between its first stage and new quarter.

The morning star is Mars.

The evening star is Venus and Jupiter.

The fourth president of the United States, James Madison, was born on this day in 1751.

On this day in history:

In 1882, the Senate approved a treaty making the United States a member of the Red Cross.

In 1943, Japanese resistance ended on two Japs.

In 1967, astronaut Armstrong and Scott successfully docked their Gemini 8 with an Agena craft — the first docking of orbiting spacecraft.

Later in the day, the Pacific when the craft failed to function properly. Both men were safe despite the emergency.

A thought for the day — British writer Isaac Walton said: "Look to your health; and if you have it, praise God, and value it next to a good conscience."

Income Tax Questions & Answers

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — Does the gas tax table in the 1966 instructions cover business driving as well as pleasure driving?

A — No. This table should only be used for non-business driving. If you are entitled to a deduction for business driving handle it separately. Check page 7 of the 1966 instructions for details.

Q — Are weekends counted in the waiting period for a sick pay exclusion?

A — Yes, they are counted unless the illness began on a weekend. In that case, the waiting period begins on the next work day.

Q — If you have more than one casualty loss during the year can you combine the losses so that you only have to apply the $100 limitation once?

A — No. The $100 limitation applies to each separate casualty.

Q — Is there any limit on what you can claim under the minimum standard deduction?

A — Yes, the limit is $500 for married persons filing separately and $1,000 for single persons or married couples filing jointly.

Q — Am I taxed on what I received on the sale of a house?

A — Profits made on the sale of a residence are taxable. However, if another home is purchased within a certain period that costs the same or more than the adjusted sales price of the one you sold, payment of the tax may be postponed. There are also special rules on home sales by those 65 or older.

Details on these provisions of the tax law are given in IRS Document No. 5087, "Selling Your Home." Send a post card to your District Director for a free copy.

Q — Is a man entitled to claim something for child care expenses?

A — Yes, under certain circumstances men as well as women are entitled to use this provision of the law.

Q — I got a refund on my state income tax last year. Do I have to declare that as income?

A — Yes. Refunds of state income tax deducted in a prior year are income. However, Federal income tax refunds are not taxable but interest on them is.

Q — I just moved. Should I notify you of my new address since I'm expecting a refund?

A — Yes, it will avoid delays in receiving your refund.

Q — My wife worked a little last year. Since there was no withholding on her salary does that mean we don't have to pay tax on it?

A — No. Income is taxable whether or not it is subject to withholding.

Q — My 14-year-old boy earned several hundred dollars last year on his paper route. Does he have to report it or do I since he is my dependent?

A — If your son earned $600 or more last year he is required to file a tax return. You should not report his earnings on your return even though he is your dependent.

Channel Six Is All-Color Station Now

Channel 6 in Paducah now has become an all-color station. Managers of WPSD-TV announced that station cameras, which have been in the testing stage for several weeks, are now in service and that all live programs produced at the Paducah station are now in color.

This adds tint to the various WPSD-TV news reports, Dance Party, Popeye, locally-produced religious programs, Romper Room, Aesop and all other public affairs programs.

WPSD-TV has been offering network and film programs in color for some time as well as videotaped shows.

Along with its network, NBC, Channel 6 has pioneered color in this area and was the first station on the air with color film, color slides, color video tape and now with live color programs.

To accomplish the first stage of its color operations, WPSD-TV has installed two RCA cameras of the very latest design. Both are equipped with zoom lenses for great versatility.

Governor Confronts Religious Issue In A Head-on Manner

By LOUIS CASSELS

United Press International
In his bid for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination, Gov. George Romney is doing the same thing that John F. Kennedy did in his successful 1960 campaign for the Presidency.

He is confronting head-on a religious issue that could have a serious effect on his candidacy.

In Kennedy's case, the religious issue stemmed from belief widely held among Protestants that a Roman Catholic President would be subject to undue influence from the hierarchy of his church.

Kennedy gave his answer in a meeting with the Protestant Ministerial Association of Houston, Tex., on Sept. 12, 1960. He said:

"Whatever issue may come before me as President—on birth control, divorce, censorship, gambling—I will make my decision in accordance with what my conscience tells me to be the national interest, and without regard to outside religious pressures or dictates."

"I do not speak for my church on public matters—and the church does not speak for me."

Kennedy's Appeal

Kennedy appealed to Americans to "judge me on the basis of my record of 14 years in Congress" rather than on the basis of "carefully selected quotations" from Catholic church leaders about the obedience expected from the laity.

The religious issue dogging Romney's candidacy stems from his widely held belief that his Mormon church condones segregation and teaches that Negroes are an inferior race.

Romney challenged this belief in a recent meeting with Catholic and Protestant clergymen in Salt Lake City, Utah—a meeting reminiscent of Kennedy's confrontation with the Houston ministerial Association.

The Michigan governor said there is nothing in the doctrine of Mormon faith that prevents him from doing all in his power to combat racial discrimination and prejudice.

On the contrary, he said, "my faith has influenced me to believe that every human being is a child of God as I am, and should have every opportunity I have."

He added:

"I have fought for 25 years in Michigan to eliminate discrimination. I believe I'm entitled to be judged on the basis of my actions, not someone's ideas of what may be the proper attitude of my church."

Debate Will Go On

Kennedy's declaration did not stop some of his opponents from arguing that a Catholic President would "take orders from the Pope." It seems doubtful that Romney's forthright statement will end political discussion of Mormon teachings about race.

There are some facts which may help to keep the debate in perspective:

All Mormon bodies admit Negroes to membership. The reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, which has a membership of about 170,000 and headquarters at Independence, Mo., ordains Negroes to its priesthood. This 2-million member church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, which has its headquarters in Salt Lake City, and to which Romney belongs, does not accept Negroes for its priesthood.

The Utah Mormons, commonly referred to as the LDS church, base their policy primarily on a belief passage in a document known as "The Book of Abraham."

The book of Abraham should not be confused with the Book of Mormon—the scriptures which the prophet Joseph Smith said he received from his angel Mormon on plates of gold.

The Book of Abraham is a translation by Smith of the hieroglyphics on an Egyptian papyrus scroll which came into the prophet's hands several years after the book of Mormon was published.

Interpreting black skin as a mark of divine disfavor, the book of Abraham speaks of Negroes being "cursed as pertaining to the priesthood."

and say it is not up to men to question the justice of God.

Liberal Mormons, including Romney, are hopeful that their church eventually will place a new interpretation on the brief passage in the Book of Abraham. Meanwhile, they take their cue from other texts, including several passages in the Book of Mormon, which assert that God loves all races equally.

All-Jersey Milk
body-building nutrients
than any other milk!

Whether young enough for abc's, or old enough for geometry, they'll study better and have extra energy when they drink All-Jersey Milk regularly. Scientific tests prove that All-Jersey Milk from 100% Jersey herds contains more body-building proteins, more calcium and phosphorus than any other natural milk of the same cream content. This assures stronger teeth and bones. Yet All-Jersey COSTS NO MORE THAN ORDINARY MILK.

All-Jersey Milk provides more "energy units" than any natural milk of the same cream content!

Don Larson Would Like Job With Giants And More Security

By GARY RALE
UPI Sports Writer

The San Francisco Giants are hanging over a $100,000 price tag while right in their own locker room is a record book name that would gladly sign on for two hits.

Don Larson, who pitched the only perfect World Series game, is trying to hook on with a big league team again and immediately made his point for a job on the Giants roster.

He entered Wednesday's game against Cleveland in the ninth inning and was the winner in 10. Larson is remembered for his baseball brilliance on Oct. 8, 1956, when he retired 27 men in a row as the New York Yankees defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers in the fifth game of the World Series.

He beat about the majors with various clubs, including San Francisco, before dropping out of the big leagues. The Giants invited him for another look-see. Larson would like to find a niche with the club and more security for the future.

Houston Edges Detroit

In other exhibition games, Houston edged Detroit 4-3, Minnesota walloped Philadelphia 14-1, Washington nipped Atlanta 2-1, Cincinnati beat the New York Mets 11-16, Baltimore belted Kansas City 11-4, St. Louis downed Los Angeles 5-2, the Chicago White Sox beat Pittsburgh 4-1, the New York Yankees topped Boston 6-3, and the Chicago Cubs squeaked past California 7-6.

San Francisco scores its winning run on three walks and an error. Willie Mays cracked out two singles to make his exhibition batting average to .562 for six games. Leon Wagner homered for Cleveland.

One upset, and one near upset, marked the opening round of the Kentucky High School Basketball Tournament played in Louisville last night. Allen County was almost upset by Franklin before they made a come back in the third quarter and won 55 to 48. The one upset was when Louisville Central defeated Owensboro 60-46 in a game that was much closer than the final score.

Allen County trailed for most of the first half as Franklin County led 13-12 at the quarter and 26-23 at half time. Big Jim McDaniels was held to only 14 points in the first half, and to only eight rebounds. During the third quarter he scored ten points. Then when he fouled out in the last quarter with two minutes left to play, and his team leading by only eight points, two bonus shot situations by the Patriots with Greg Carter and Tex Carter put them out in front to a safe margin. McDaniels scored 26 points which was seven points below his game average.

Louisville Central took command early in the game and had little trouble with Owensboro in the second half. They were trailing 11-8 at the quarter but 26-20 at half time and 40-22 at the quarter.

Otto Petty and Ernest Marshall, two 5-foot-8 inch guards came into the yellow jacket lineup with five minutes left in the first half and changed whole outlook of the game. In the first 30 seconds after they entered the game they brought their team from six points behind to a 17-17, and Central was on their way to the quarter finals.

Otto Petty and Glen Montgomery each scored eleven points to lead Central. Ronnie Jackson led Owensboro in scoring with 17 and Felix Thurston had 16.

Clay Asked To Report On March 11

LOUISVILLE, Ky. 675 — Cassius Clay has been ordered to report for induction into the Army April 11, climaxing a year of futile appeals by the heavyweight boxing champion.

The induction order was disclosed Wednesday by J. Allen Sherman, director of Clay's local draft board. He said the order was mailed to Clay and his attorneys Tuesday.

The disclosure came shortly after Clay's attorneys filed a federal court suit at Owensboro, claiming his draft board is illegally constituted because it has no Negro members. U. S. District Judge James Gordon scheduled a hearing on the suit for March 29 in Louisville.

Sherman said a presidential appeals board had reviewed Clay's case and upheld his 1-A classification. A draft board spokesman said the fighted conative could be sworn into the Army the day he report for induction.

Informed of Decision

In New York, boxing City Director John Condon of Madison Square Garden said he was informed of Clay's possible induction, said, "Everybody has to go. It's just his turn. I hope he goes into the service an ex-champ."

Clay is scheduled to fight Zora Folley March 22, and has tentative dates to fight Oscar Bonavena in Tokyo and Thad Spencer in San Francisco later this year.

Folley, upon learning of Clay's possible induction, said, "Everybody has to go. It's just his turn. I hope he goes into the service an ex-champ."

Year of Appeals

Clay's lengthy series of appeals began in February when he was reclassified 1-A. He failed the mental test, but was reclassified when the Defense Department lowered standards because of the Vietnam war.

He repeatedly was denied deferments, which he sought both on grounds that he was a conscientious objector and a Black Muslim minister.

A draft board spokesman said the induction routine calls for Clay to undergo a physical screening. "No further mental test is necessary, and he ordinarily would be sworn into the Army that day, if he passed the physical," the spokesman said.

Boyd Home Is Scene Of Pleasant Grove Women's Meeting

Mrs. Margaret Neil Boyd was hostess for the meeting of the Cumberland Presbyterian Women of the North Pleasant Grove Church held at her home on Tuesday, March 14, at one o'clock in the afternoon.

The program leader was Mrs. Paul Cunningham who read the devotion from the twelfth chapter of Romans and led in prayer.

The "Columbian Story" was the subject of the program and a description of the country was given by Mrs. Cunningham. Mrs. Thomas Jones discussed the early history of the country and Mrs. Boyd talked about the struggle for its independence.

Mrs. Merrill Lawson discussed the people of Columbia and Mrs. Cecil Burnett gave a profile of the Cumberland Presbyterians in Columbia. The closing prayer was by Mrs. Jones.

The president, Mrs. Lawson, presided and the secretary, Mrs. Burnett, read the minutes.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Willie Jeann as a guest.

The April 11th meeting at one p.m. will be held at the manse, 306 South 15th Street, with Mrs. Burnett as hostess.

Mrs. Jeffrey Gives Program At Mattie Bell Hays Meeting

Mrs. William Jeffrey presented the program at the meeting of the Mattie Bell Hays Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church held Monday, March 13, at seven o'clock in the evening at the social hall.

A program on the Easter message was given by Mrs. Jeffrey. Mrs. Hue Overby gave the devotion on the same theme.

Mrs. Roy Farmer played several numbers on the piano and accompanied Mrs. Glenn Doran who sang "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?"

The circle chairman, Mrs. Garret Jones, presided and welcomed Mrs. Doran as a new member of the circle.

During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. T. Stodd, Mrs. Harry Stodd, and Mrs. Garret Jones.

Scholar Doubts Godiva Legend

COVENTRY, England (UPI) — When a good story has lasted 900 years, does it matter whether it's truth or legend?

Historian Adrian Dobson thinks it does and "says he is convinced Lady Godiva never rode naked on a horse through the streets of Coventry."

Coventry authorities insist Dobson is talking humbug and are going right ahead on an elaborate summer celebration of the 900th anniversary of the lady's death.

Legend has it that the beautiful Godiva rode naked through the streets to protest taxes imposed by her husband, Leofric.

"The story has persisted 900 years," said Coventry councilman Harry Weston. "And there's no smoke without fire."

Awards Presented By DAR Chapter At Luncheon Meeting

The March Meeting of the Wendell Oury Chapter of the D. A. R. was held at noon in the Holiday Inn, Saturday, March 11.

The meeting was called to order by the regent, Mrs. John Nance. The opening ritual was given, followed by the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Mrs. Price Doyle gave the blessing.

Mrs. Nance greeted the guests, Miss Theresa Reag, Murray High School, with her mother, Mrs. John V. Reag from Murray; Miss Carol Barrow, Calloway County High School with her mother, Mrs. Floyd Barrow from Hazel; and Miss Kathy Rayburn, University High School, our Good Citizen with her mother Mrs. Joe Nell Rayburn, Murray.

She presented each girl with a Good Citizenship Medal and to Miss Rayburn her award for being chosen Good Citizen from this Chapter.

The president's general message was read by regent, National Defense was given by Mrs. Leon Orogan.

Mrs. Nance read an interesting paper, "Development of Music in America," prepared by the Vermont D. A. R.

Mrs. Conrad Jones Hostess For Bessie Tucker Circle Meet

Mrs. Conrad Jones opened her home on Wells Boulevard for the meeting of the Bessie Tucker Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church held Tuesday, March 14, at nine-thirty o'clock in the morning.

The program was led by Mrs. Otis Brooks who was assisted by Mrs. John T. Irwin, Mrs. G. O. Ascraft, Mrs. Norville Cole, and Mrs. Bryan Tolley.

Mrs. Harris Byrd gave the devotion. Mrs. E. A. Tucker read excerpts from her diary of private prayer giving thanks for Christ's life on earth.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. John Irwin in the absence of the circle chairman, Mrs. A. J. Kipp. Mrs. James Diaguid read the minutes and nursing home visits were planned. The World Bank was collected and the circle voted to buy two robes for the Carol Choir.

It was announced that fourteen persons from the church attended the annual meeting at Martin with each session being attended by Murray persons and the church answering yes to all the questions on the Standard of Excellence. Two ribbons were received by the Murray WSCS.

Visits to the sick and new members were reported. Mrs. John Irwin will be chairman of the circle for the next church year.

A social hour was enjoyed by the fourteen members present.

Miss Peggy Kipp Is Honored At Shower At Baker Home

Miss Peggy Kipp, April 15th bride-elect of Gene Bailey, was honored with a galasolaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Charles Baker on Saturday, March 11, at seven o'clock in the evening.

The gracious hostesses for the pre-nuptial event were Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Verne Kyle, Mrs. Maurice Ryan, and Mrs. Wesley Kemper.

A color scheme of yellow and white, the bride-elect's chosen colors, was used in the decorations throughout the Baker home. An arrangement of loppula was placed beside the bride's register book.

The honoree chose to wear from her trousseau a yellow wool shift and her hostesses' gift corsage was of yellow carnations with white streamers. Her mother, Mrs. A. J. Kipp, was presented a corsage by the hostesses.

Centering the dining room table was an artificial centerpiece of yellow and white flowers with a portable electric mixer placed in the center. Both the centerpiece and the mixer were presented to the honoree as a gift from the hostesses.

Miss Kipp opened her many other lovely and useful gifts which had been placed on the dining table.

The hostesses served a dessert course to the twenty-two persons present.

Theta Department Has Open Meeting On Monday Evening

An open meeting of the Theta Department of the Murray Woman's Club was held Monday, March 13, at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening at the club house.

Dr. Ralph Tesener, dean of the graduate school at Murray State University, was the guest speaker and was introduced by Mrs. Harold Hopper.

"Teens and Mental Health" was the subject of his talk in which he discussed the problems of the teen agers. During his discussion, Dr. Tesener said the problems of the people in this age may seem silly to adults, but they are not to the young people themselves.

Mrs. James Fee, chairman of the department, presided and made announcements. Names will be tabbed at the April meeting.

During the social hour refreshments were served to the members and guests by the hostesses, Mrs. Castle Parker, Mrs. Paul Lynn, and Mrs. Harold Eversmeyer.

Fashionettes

Want to be shoe-wise. Larry Myrin, vice president in charge of design for the A. S. Beck Shoe Corp., says it is simple. Warm weather fashions, he says, emphasize the low, chunky heel and the broad toe. The low-cut, sweep-back last is growing in popularity, too. Important on the same value scale: the square-cut throat. Trimmines, if you want to be wise, still include buckles and nail-heads. Linings, what's more, stray from the utilitarian. They are fashion accessories, if you will. It happens this way: they either match or contrast with the shoe itself. Colors? The pale foot look is vital. Next: pastels. Then — navy. After that: brown, my dear. And don't forget. The people figure they're going to strap you in for spring and summer. The strap's the thing — just watch. You'll see.

ATTEND CHURCH

FLIGHT... of Faith

The faith of a boy that a slender string shall hold high his kite — that when he extends a little more string his kite will go a little higher — shows that this flight is a flight of faith.

As the boy has faith in the string so must we have faith in our Lord, and the more faith we extend, the higher and more abundant our lives will be. It is written in Romans 1:17, "The just shall live by faith." Attend Church this Sunday and receive inspiration from those who share your faith, that you may, as the Apostle Paul said, "be comforted together by the mutual faith of you both."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

The Twin Lakes Coonhunters Club will hold their special Buddy Hunt, Saturday night, March 18th. If I don't get the opportunity to remind you again—PLEASE, please attend.

Attention Bird Hunters: Check the following information carefully. This may be the last time it will get mentioned. Please clip this notice and refer to it often. How I wish I could join this Field Trial Sunday. My deepest gratitude to Mr. Farrell Miller for the special invitation. Thank you, and the other bird hunters, for your interest. I really do understand your shyness. It's general knowledge the buddies really put you through torture if you mention your dogs. Don't let it bother you fellows. They may "rib" you a little but if you appear, can't they be far behind? It's all in fun, so ignore them until you get your chance at them!

Good luck to each of you in your particular interest!

The Calloway County Field Trial Club will sponsor a Bird Dog Field Trial, March 18 & 19, at the West Kentucky Management Area near Paducah.

There will be four stakes run in the trial: puppy, derby, shooting dog, and all age. The puppy is any dog born after January 1, 1966. A derby is a dog born after January 1, 1965.

Anyone interested in running in any of the four stakes should contact the club secretary, Ronnie Ray, phone 753-5568. At the present there have been 61 dogs entered from Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, Illinois and Indiana.

This will be the largest entry of any trial held on the Management Area this season and promises to be one of the best. The drawing for braces will be held at the Calloway County Courthouse at 7:00 Friday night, and the trial will start promptly at 8:00 Saturday morning.

Field judges will be Jim Clack and Howard Parks, from Paducah.

Henry Major is planning to attend the NPHA third annual Southern Plott Day at Scottsboro, Alabama, Saturday, March 18, 1967. This is a U.K.C. Wild Coon Hunt and Bench Show. All Plott owners, pay heed!

Among the special events will be: Coon In A Hole; Coon On A Pole; Swim Race; Saturday afternoon Bench Show. Saturday night U.K.C. Reg Night Hunt and Grade Hunt. Reg. and grade dogs hunt separate.

Not responsible for accident or theft. No drinking please. For additional information, call us.

Monday, March 20, a sale of top grade Registered Angus Cattle will go on sale at the new pavilion at Murray State University.

For Sale: Bulls, Cows, Calves, Bred Heifers, Open Heifers, outstanding individuals and pedigrees. Antonian President, a real champion—a prize bull—will also be sold.

Stan Key Heads All-Star List

By GALE GARRISON

Calloway's Stan Key heads the All-Star Team selected recently by the First Regional High School Coaches' Association.

The selections of the coaches were announced yesterday by the president of the coaches association, Barney Thwait.

The coach of the year, also voted by the association, was Frank Wright, of Heath.

Four of the All-Stars are juniors, and six are seniors. The juniors are Key, Hamilton, Clapp and Barclay. The seniors are Hill, Barrett, Thromorton, Ragland, Hopper and Caldwell.

Tilghman Falls By Wayside In Opening Game Of Tournament

Paducah Tilghman, the first regional representative was eliminated by Covington in the first game played this morning in the "Breakfast Session" this morning at Louisville by the score of 76-49.

The Tornado was never really in the game, as Covington Catholic jumped out to an early lead and was never in any trouble.

George Schlomer was the leading scorer of the game as he jumped in 23 points. Joe Fritz was the only other Covington player to enter double figures as he scored 13 points.

Tilghman had two players in double figures led by Claytie Hamilton with 19 points, and Eddie Garrett added 12.

Covington Catholic will meet Monticello Friday at 3:45 p.m. Covington Catholic (76) Kimbrow 7, Nall 9, Schlomer 26, Fritz 13, Cooper 7, Bryan 2, Grogan 2, Overman 2.

Paducah Tilghman (49) Ragland 8, Hamilton 19, Lee 4, Garrett 12, Seltzer 1, Wall 5.

PILOT PROJECT

With the very small amount of local funds available previously for that program, there was no way to show citizens the many possibilities. This is why Calloway County received the Demonstration.

Now the time for a local decision is at hand. It is only fair to make it clear to you that there is no possible way for our department to extend the present Demonstration beyond the agreed upon time limit if permanent local support is not obtained.

There are numerous counties which are anxious for a similar Demonstration or pilot project. All materials and equipment will have to be moved to one of these counties for a similar period of time, if Calloway County does not wish to have a good library and Bookmobile Program.

We wish all of you every success in your work to provide for your fine city and county the best materials and the best service possible. We promise to do everything we can to build your service further in the future, following successful local action for local support.

Most sincerely, Margaret Willis

Monticello Pulls Second Upset Of State Tournament

In the second morning game Monticello pulled the second upset of the tournament as they defeated Shelbyville 63 to 59. The first came last night as Louisville Central defeated Owensboro.

Shelbyville led by two at the quarter, but Monticello put on a scoring spree and led at halftime by 36-25.

Shelbyville made a strong comeback in the last quarter, but fell short and was unable to overcome the long lead that the Monticello team had built up in the first half.

Jack Perdue and Kemit Perkins led Monticello to victory by scoring 18 points each, but game honors went to Charlie Matthews with 19 points for Shelbyville.

Darryl Dunsagan was the only other Monticello player to score in double figures by scoring 12. James Ellis scored 10 points for Shelbyville to round out the double figure scores for that team.

Monticello will meet Covington Catholic in the quarter-final Friday afternoon.

large to the farmer to continue the change in farming technique, especially in the use of purebred livestock.

The commercial aspects of the economy were said to be extremely bright, with total retail sales of $38,394,000 predicted for 1967 ... a gain of two million dollars over 1966.

He said that the gain in sales had been so good, that the downtown shopping area had increased sales, rather than lost, in spite of three new shopping centers being developed.

Mr. Johnson then said we could face the future of industrial progress with a big grin, as we have been tentatively selected as the site for two of the nation's best plants, Eli Lilly & Company and General Carbon and Graphite Company. He said that engineering surveys were continuing at a rapid pace on both, and a final decision should be made in the near future.

In the field of education, he stressed that great credit was due Murray State University's Administration in the phenomenal growth pattern that had been developed.

He said that in spite of the rapid expansion, that a Murray State degree is more highly valued now than at any time in the past. He said that the prediction of 10,000 students by 1970 would become a reality.

In closing, Johnson said, "There is a lot of psychology involved in the growth factors of a city or a community. It is my firm belief be reflected in revision of contract arrangements.

"For the past 15 years TVA has been able to offset steadily rising cost trends with various improvements in efficiency and economy without increasing its wholesale power rate," he said. "However, a thorough review of all cost factors now makes it clear that greater revenues must be obtained to assure reliable power supplies for the region's needs and financial soundness for the TVA system."

"One major factor in the need for greater power revenue is the recent trend of increasing prices on coal," which is the largest single TVA power expense item at $100 million a year.

Wagner said, "Another is the rising interest rates of recent years, affecting both interest expense on TVA bonds and notes and the return which TVA pays to the U.S. Treasury."

The revenue increase of $25 to $30 million would equal 7 to 9 percent of TVA's electric revenues of $341 million in 1966. However, Wagner said this does not necessarily indicate the level of rate increases for the individual consumer because varying costs and other factors will be taken into account in developing new rates.

TVA is required under the TVA Act, to charge electric rates sufficient to cover all of its power program costs including power system operating costs, payments in lieu of taxes to states and counties, debt service on bonds and notes, payments to the U.S. Treasury (currently more than $80 million a year), and to provide an adequate margin.

TVA sells power to 159 municipal, cooperative, and private distribution systems and to about 40 industrial and Government installations with large power requirements.

The last significant increase in the region's power rates was made in 1962, and that change affected only industrial power rates. Wagner pointed out, it was designed to reflect the added costs of power from steam-electric generating plants, as the region's power demands outgrow the supply available from dams. Retail rates to local consumers in the TVA area have shown a steady downward trend through the years. This will be the first time residential rates have had to be increased.

"Since 1962 we have been able to absorb rising costs with system improvements such as better and more efficient generating units, seasonal interchange arrangements with neighboring utilities, extra-high-voltage transmission, and reduction in coal costs, transportation, and handling," he said. "However, still further increases in cost now require this action to assure increased revenues and assure the continued financial stability of the TVA power system."

Attempt To Steal Coin Collection In Marshall County

A woman and two men have been charged with conspiracy to steal a valuable coin collection.

Marshall County Sheriff Joe Tom Halton identified the woman as Wilma Jean Humes, 23, of Lake City, Mich. The two men were identified as Charles Stephens, 25, also of Lake City, and Ronald Greenup, 23, Louisville.

They are charged with an attempt to enter the home of Albert Lee in Hardin. Lee is a coin collector.

Their case is to be presented to the Marshall County grand jury Thursday morning.

Halton said Mrs. Humes went to the Lee home Monday night, knocked on the door and asked to use the telephone. Lee refused.

Meanwhile neighbors saw two masked men prowling around the place and called the sheriff.

Before Halton arrived two state troopers went to the home and stopped Mrs. Humes. The two men fled.

After questioning the woman Halton arrested her and charged her with vagrancy. She was taken to jail.

Tuesday morning Halton got a telephone call from a man who asked about Mrs. Humes. Halton learned that the call was from a service station in Benton.

Greenup and Stephens were subsequently arrested at the station. Lake City, Mich. authorities have notified Halton that Mrs. Humes and Stephens are wanted there on a burglary charge. Halton said they will be turned over to Lake City officers Thursday morning.

Former Calloway Man Is Killed Tuesday As He Attacks Family

The following story appeared in the Paducah Sun-Democrat and is being reprinted for the interest of the readers of the Ledger & Times.

Dixon is a native of Calloway County.

Seventeen-year-old Steve Dixon has been charged with wilful murder following the shooting slaying of his father, Chester Dixon, 44, at the family home on Hardmoney Road, Paducah Rt. 3, Tuesday night.

He was released under $5,000 bond Wednesday pending an examining trial at 2 p. m. next Wednesday in McCracken Juvenile Court.

McCracken County Coroner John Barker said that young Dixon, and his mother told the coroner this story:

The elder Dixon came home drinking about 8 o'clock Tuesday night and started throwing his wife around. All the couple's eight children, with the exception of James Dixon, 22, were present.

The father demanded to know where his son, James, was and was told he was out visiting. The elder Dixon then headed a 12 gauge shotgun, set it by the front door, and said he intended to kill James Dixon when he came home.

The father engaged in a struggle with Steve Dixon and tore his shirt, and when the elder Dixon grabbed the boy again, the youth picked up the shotgun and fired, striking the father in the head and killing him instantly.

Steve Dixon was lodged in McCracken County Jail Tuesday night. The warrant for murder was taken Wednesday morning by Deputy Sheriff Jim Champlin.

McCracken County Attorney Andrew Balmer said there is some question as to whether the shooting took place in McCracken or Graves County, as the Dixon home is on the county line. He said in the event it was determined Dixon was killed in Graves County, the case could be transferred to that jurisdiction.

Dixon's body was taken to Lindsey's Funeral Home.

Dixon, a native of Calloway County, was a former employee of Yancy Asphalt Co.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Dixon; six sons, James, Tommy, Darrell and Richard Dixon, all of Paducah Rt. 3, and John Henry Dixon of Ft. Hood, Tex.; two daughters, Misses Rosemary and Ruth Ann Dixon of Paducah Rt. 3; two brothers, Aubrey and Zean Dixon of Paducah, and three sisters, Miss Darlie Dixon and Mrs. Lillian Henderson, both of Paducah, and Mrs. Clara Thorning of Detroit.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a. m. Friday at Lindsey Funeral Chapel with the Rev. Jack Brown officiating. Burial will be in McDaniel Cemetery in Calloway County.

Purchase Area EOC Will Meet Monday

The Purchase Area Economic Opportunity Council's monthly meeting will be held Monday night at West Kentucky Vocational School, Paducah.

The monthly session, ordinarily held on the third Thursday night of the month, Acting Director Robert Schell is out of the city, however, his office reported Wednesday.

The Monday night meeting will be the first one for a number of new board members. The council now has 24 board members and, beginning Monday, it officially will have 40 members. Some of the present board members were not re-elected.

One-third of the new board members reside in so-called poverty target areas.

The new board is scheduled to elect a chairman, a vice chairman, secretary and treasurer. Dr. Ray Mofield, assistant to the president of Murray State University, is winding up a year as chairman.

The new board also faces action on employing a new director. Schell has been acting director since last summer.

It also may take action soon on hiring a person to direct an on-the-job training program in McCracken, Marshall, Graves and Calloway counties.

A buffet dinner will be served at 6:30 Monday evening and the business session will follow.

Growth Capital Seen For Co-ops, Cooper

WASHINGTON — About 300 representatives of Kentucky's rural electric cooperatives were told Tuesday that proposed legislation to make more growth capital available to co-ops has a good chance of passage this year.

The optimistic forecast from Sen. John Sherman Cooper and 1st District Rep. Frank A. Stubblefield, both strong supporters of the federally aided rural electric system.

Cooper, Stubblefield and the rest of the state's congressional delegation attended the 11th annual legislative breakfast sponsored by the Kentucky Rural Electric Cooperative Assn.

Sen. Cooper and Rep. Robert Pogue, D-Tex., have introduced bills that would authorize the creation of two new federal banks and establish revolving funds to finance loans of up to 3 per cent to qualified rural electric and telephone co-ops.

Similar measures cited in the Senate and House Agriculture committees last year.

But this year, Cooper and Stubblefield predicted, legislation favorable to the co-ops will be reported out by the House committee and ultimately passed by both House and Senate.

The House panel, of which Stubblefield is a member, will open hearings on the proposal Tuesday. Final action by the committee is expected April 6.

The proposed legislation would supplement rather than replace the long-standing program of 2 per cent loans from the Rural Electrification Administration.

Supporters of the proposals argue that the co-ops need this additional financing to meet the increasing demand for power. The plan is vigorously opposed by private power companies.

Limestone Needed On Most Farms

A summary of soil test show that 88 percent of the crop and pasture land in the Purchase Extension Area needs limestone, says W. K. Robertson, Extension Agent in Agronomy.

Unless land is limed properly farmers will not get the most benefit from fertility already in the soil and that which is applied as fertilizer.

A buffet dinner will be served at 6:30 Monday evening and the business session will follow.

Barkley Jones Nained President Of The Mayfield Rotary Club

Barkley Jones, principal of Mayfield High School, has been named president of the Mayfield Rotary Club for 1967. Jones has served as secretary of the club this past year.

A native of Calloway County, the new president has been connected with the school system in Mayfield for 14 years. He served as principal of Washington elementary school for five years and for the past nine years has been principal of Mayfield High School.

He graduated from Lynn Grove High School; received his BA from Murray State University in 1949 and completed his MA at Murray in 1953.

The new president is a former Kentucky State Representative from Calloway County and has served as president of the First District Education Association. Active in many community affairs, he is a member of the Church of Christ, and resides at 208 Lincoln Drive. The new president will be installed in July.

Breathitt Urges Support Of "Heller Plan" On Revenues

Gov. Edward T. Breathitt Tuesday urged Kentucky school board officials at the 31st annual convention at Louisville to "put the pressure" on the state's congressional delegation to support the "Heller Plan" for returning to the states a percentage of federal tax revenues.

"The state would receive 'millions and millions of dollars' from such a plan and Breathitt added that he was sure a large portion would go for education."

James Fleming, director of the State Legislative Research Commission, said in a speech at the convention that more money is not the only solution to education problems in Kentucky. He suggested establishment of a continuing committee of educators and legislators to study the needs of education and the formation of legislative programs.

BUT'S MAKE MARK

Will the next fashion look be a fitted one, with well-marked waistline? New interest in belts says it could be so. For now, belts are meant for casual wear, are wide and adorned with nailheads, other metal statements.

Asks Evaluation As To How State Can Stay Off DST

FRANKFORT, Ky. — Lt. Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield Tuesday asked Transportation Secretary Alan S. Boyd to explain how he could exempt Kentucky from going on daylight saving time next month.

Waterfield's letter to Boyd was in response to news stories citing assurances by the transportation secretary that he would not enforce the federal Uniform Time Act against Kentucky this year.

These statements were in response to a request by Gov. Edward T. Breathitt, who has said he would not call a special session of the legislature on the time issue because it would cost the state $500,000 needlessly.
